

IANUA Market's Commitment to Community and Integrity

At IANUA Market, we hold firm to the values of community, trust, and integrity. These values are the cornerstones of our collective investment journey. We extend an open and welcoming hand to all our members, and together, we abide by a Code of Conduct that reflects our shared commitment to these principles:

1. Embracing the Law and Regulations:

- We respect and adhere to all laws and regulations, including those governing securities and insider trading.

2. Valuing Confidentiality and Privacy:

- Within our community, we cherish the trust and confidentiality that allow private market investment opportunities to flourish.

3. Honesty and Open Conversations:

- We encourage open, honest, and constructive dialogues, even when our views diverge.

4. Respect and Inclusivity:

- We stand united in mutual respect for every member, their teams, and their contributions. Discriminatory or offensive language and behaviors have no place here. Our strength lies in our inclusivity.

5. Celebrating Diversity:

- We revel in the diversity of backgrounds and experiences that each member brings. It is this diversity that enriches our community and fuels its continuous growth.

6. A Collective Ethos:

- We invite every member to embrace IANUA Market as the heart of our community. As IANUA brings us together for co-investments, we celebrate its central role in creating these opportunities.

By embracing these straightforward principles, we believe that IANUA Market can offer substantial benefits to innovators and the investment market that supports them. Together, we contribute to a dynamic, welcoming, and thriving investment ecosystem.
